FLEET PLANS FOR OCTOBER ENTERTAINMENT POLITICAL WORKERS ARE MAKING SLATE

SHINGLE IS LIKELY TO RUN FOR HOUSE

Home Rulers And Achi Men Are Getting Together

R. W. Shingle, the president of the Henry Waterhouse Trust Co., is likely to be a candidate for the House of Representatives on the Republican ticket. It was stated on good authority today that he would be so, and, at least, it was absolutely definitely learned that a delegation of his friends and admirers had waited on him to press him to run. Shingle had told the delegation that he had not quite made up his mind about the matter and he would give them his answer this afternoon.

The nomination of Shingle would undoubtedly strengthen the Republican ticket considerably, as he commands the respect of the business community, and his reputation for energy and a quick grasp of affairs will make him a valuable member of the Legislature.

The Democrats have been hoping to run Treasurer Trent for Mayor, as they realize that he would be one of the few men in their party who might have some hope of defeating a Republican candidate. Yesterday several delegations from various precincts which had made slates with his name slated for Mayor, called upon him, but they were doomed to meet with disappointment. Trent considers that under the wording of the Municipal Act, which provides that the Mayor may not during his term of office engage in any "profession or calling," he would not be able to carry on his present business, and he does not wish to sacrifice this for political honors, no matter how great these may be.

"It would be a hair-splitting proposition to contend that the law would not prevent the carrying on of my business," said Trent this forenoon, "and I do not propose to split hairs over the matter. I have absolutely declined to accept the nomination for Mayor, and this is definite. Of course, I appreciate the honor of being offered the nomination, but my business will not allow me to accept it."

Ed. Ingham, another of the Democratic pillars, also declines to run for Mayor.

This afternoon the elections of delegates to the Republican County and Territorial Conventions will take place. There will be some strenuous fights in some of the precincts, and there is much kicking in the Seventh of the Fifth, while in the Second of the Fourth there is considerable

LONG FOR SHERIFF

A persistent rumor was in circulation this morning to the effect that Carlos Long would be a candidate for Sheriff on the Republican ticket. There seems no doubt that such a movement is on foot and not a few active workers are out for Long.

Mr. Long does not declare himself, however, for any position on the Republican ticket. What he is looking for is the delegateship to the convention and further than that he says he is in the hands of his friends. This is interpreted to mean that Mr. Long will accept the nomination if he is given the majority vote of the convention.

"I have not announced myself as a candidate for Sheriff," said Long when interviewed. "I am in the hands of my friends. Whatever they say I will have to take under consideration. What I am looking for is to be a delegate to the convention. Those who will be elected at the convention will be the ones who are responsible for putting up their man."

"Would you accept the Sheriffship if offered you by your friends?" asked the reporter.

"I cannot say. I am not saying anything now," answered Long.

HOW LAND LAW MAKES SMALL FARM

LAND TRANSACTION FILED FOR RECORD CALLS ATTENTION TO FAILURE OF SETTLEMENT ASSOCIATIONS TO PERMANENTLY POPULATE PUBLIC LANDS OPENED UP

"It is to counteract such transactions and speculations in land as this seems to be a fair example, that I have made it my policy to turn down all Settlement Association applications. I have had probably fifteen or twenty applications for Settlement Association grants, but, with the exception of one, which is a matter of 100 acres of land at Onomea, promised by Governor Carter, I have refused them. Land speculation, so far as we can help, will not be tolerated."

original holder of the land, under right of purchase lease.

Ross got the land under the settlement association plan in March, 1904. Just a year later he came over to this island to become a plantation manager, and consequently could not fill the residence clause in his agreement. The land, according to the land office, was therefore transferred to Periera at a nominal figure, and the latter has made the place his little home, building a small house, and cultivating the land. It was his small farm.

Now Ross, who cannot live on the land, buys it. There is no violation of the law, but this manner of switching government land, originally intended for settlers and small farmers, is not interpreted by the Government as coming within the spirit of the law.

DANCE AT HONOLULU SEASIDE HOTEL TO NIGHT IN HONOR OF PACIFIC FLEET

Commencing this evening, and continuing every night during the visit of the Pacific fleet, a dance will be given in their honor at the Honolulu Seaside Hotel. Special dinners will also be served in the open air dining room from six-thirty to eight, which has been attractively decorated for the occasion. Music for all of the dinners and dances will be supplied by the Kaai Glee Club. A cordial invitation to the local Army and Navy folk, as well as the numerous patrons of the Seaside, is extended.

Dr. and Mrs. Sinclair, accompanied by Miss Sinclair, came back today from Hilo, where they enjoyed their vacation.

Parade When Ships Return From Samoa

The Pacific Fleet Committee met with Admiral Swinburne on board the West Virginia this morning, to discuss plans for the entertainment of the officers and men while they are making their two stays in this port. The result is that the public events will not be held until October, after the return of the squadron from Samoa, upon the suggestion of the Admiral.

Admiral Swinburne stated that he thought it better, on account of scarcity of time and other considerations, that the matter of entertainment be postponed until the return of the ships. The amount of leisure during the longer October stay will be greater, and the time more opportune.

Parade Promised

The Admiral promised to have men from the ships parade, as was done in the case of the Atlantic Fleet during its recent stay here. Though there are somewhat less men with this Squadron, a good many thousands will be in line, and a very excellent spectacle furnished.

Plans for the events which are to mark the stay of the Fleet later were gone into in a general way, and a comprehensive outline mapped.

To See Pearl Harbor

In the first place, two trips to Pearl Harbor will be held, as was done when Sperry's big fleet was here. Wahiawa will also be taken in. An appropriation has been made for the Wahiawa trip, lasting over two days, of $150. The excursions will enable officers and men to take a look at the future Naval Station of the Hawaiian Islands. They will probably be made by rail and by the Iroquois, as was done before.

Ladies To Entertain

It was further decided that the Ladies' Social Committee would take a prominent part in the entertainment work. There will be a ball

YOUNG MEN AND REPUBLICANS

NATIONAL COMMITTEEMAN ROBERTSON POINTS TO YOUNG REPUBLICANS—PARTY CAN WIN HANDS DOWN WITH GOOD MEN READY TO SERVE AS CANDIDATES AND WORK

The interview with W. A. Kinney published in the morning paper has been interpreted by many of the Republicans as a very obvious effort to alienate the Hawaiian-Americans from the Republican party, by showing that the Democrats offer them better prospects than the Republicans.

When the matter was brought to the attention of National Committeeman Robertson this morning, he said:

"Speaking of young Hawaiians who have demonstrated their ability in public office, without disparagement of Hopkins and Rose, whom Mr. Kinney mentions, as promising young Democrats, the Republican
